

Sandro Botticelli, La nascita di Venere (1482-1485), Florence, Galleria degli Uffizi

Research Events in Italian Studies – Easter Term 2016

Graduate Research Seminar

Wednesday 20th April,
5.15pm, Outer Parlour,
Pembroke College, Prof.
Brenda Deen Schildgen
(University of California,
Davis): *Girolamo Savonarola's
Apologeticus, Christian Poetry, and the Attack Against Art and Poetry*

Cambridge Vertical Readings in Dante's Comedy

Thursday 21st April, 6pm,
Winstanley Lecture Theatre,
Trinity College, Prof. Rev.
Rowan Williams (University of Cambridge): *Ice, Fire, and Holy Water (Inferno XXXIII-
XXXIV, Purgatorio XXXIII,
Paradiso XXXIII)*

Graduate Research Seminar

Wednesday 27th April,
4.30pm, Thomas Gray Room,
Pembroke College, Prof.

Robert Gordon and Dr Alessandra Diazi (University of Cambridge), Dr Florian Mussnug (University College
London), Dr Olivia Santovetti
(University of Leeds): *The Liar
Paradox: Deceit, Ambiguity, and the Vagaries of Fortune from Pinocchio to Ferrante*

Graduate Research Seminar

Wednesday 4th May, 5.15pm,
Thomas Gray Room,
Pembroke College, Dr Norma
Schifano and Dr Giuseppina Silvestri (University of Cambridge): Language Contact in Salento: Preliminary Results of a Language Investigation into Griko

Graduate Research Seminar

Wednesday 11th May,
5.15pm, Thomas Gray Room,
Pembroke College, Prof.
Salvatore Lupo (University of Palermo), in conversation with Prof. John Dickie (University College London), Dr Mara

Keire (University of Oxford), and Dr Paolo Campana (University of Cambridge): *The
Two Mafias: A Transatlantic
History, 1888-2008*

CIRN Annual Symposium

Friday 20th May, 10am-
5.30pm, Senior Parlour,
Gonville and Caius College:
Death in Italy (details to follow)

Graduate Research Seminar

Wednesday 1st June, 5.15 pm,
Thomas Gray Room,
Pembroke College, Dr Fabio Camilletti (University of Warwick) and Sara Delmedico
(University of Cambridge):
Sposi promessi: sacramento del matrimonio e indissolubilità del vincolo nell'Italia dell'Ottocento