

UNIVERSITY OF CAMBRIDGE

Arts & Humanities
Research Council

SEX IN SIX OBJECTS

A series of workshops for young people investigating the history of sexuality in six objects

Sat 2 April
2-3:30pm

The 'AIDS and You' Board Game and other AIDS education objects from the 1980s and 1990s
Facilitated by Hannah Elizabeth (University of Manchester)

Sat 16 April
2-3:30pm

The pocket-sized medical text 'Aristotle's Masterpiece', and other books from which the Victorians learned about sex
Facilitated by Dr Sarah Bull (University of Cambridge)

Mon 25 April
5-6:30pm

Sex surveys, sex statistics and the diaries of cross-dressers and other 'inverts'
Facilitated by Sir David Spiegelhalter and Dr Ina Linge (University of Cambridge)

Wed 4 May
5-6:30pm

The 1958 documentary 'People in Trouble' about mixed-race relationships
Facilitated by Professor Lucy Bland (Anglia Ruskin University)

Thu 5 May
3-4:30pm

The Roman 'penis pot' and other erotic objects from the past
Facilitated by Dr Jana Funke and Dr Jen Grove (University of Exeter)

Tue 10 May
5-6:30pm

Pregnancy tests, from living animals to plastic sticks
Facilitated by Dr Jesse Olszynko-Gryn (University of Cambridge)

All events will take place in Central Cambridge. See our website below for more information.

All workshops are free. Pick yours and register here:
www.sexinsixobjects.com