

Cambridge New Habsburg Studies Network
Workshop “New Approaches”
4th March 2016
Senior Parlour, Gonville & Caius College

Programme

- 14.00 Welcome and Introduction
- 14.15 Professor Estella Weiss-Krejci (University of Vienna)
The House of Habsburg as data source for the interpretation of general archaeological questions
- 14.50 Dr Ingrid Matschinegg (Salzburg University)
Why objects matter. Research perspectives at the Institute for Medieval and Early Modern Material Culture at Krems (Austria)
- 15.25 Tobias Roeder (Clare College, Cambridge)
Army Officers of the Habsburg Monarchy and Social and National Mobility, 1740-1790
- 16.00 Coffee break
- 16.30 Dr Anna Ananieva (Queen Mary, University of London)
Entertainment for the beau monde: The Hungarian Gazette “Der Spiegel” and other elegant journals of the “Vormärz”-period (in German)
- 17.05 Professor Yvonne Wübben (Freie Universität Berlin)
Practices of Censorship: Arthur Schnitzler and Sigmund Freud publish their dreams (in German)
- 17.40 Dr Claire Morelon (Queen’s College, Oxford)
The First World War and the end of the Habsburg Empire in Prague, 1914-1920
- 18.15 Round table
With Dr Astrid Köhler (QMUL) and members of the CNHSN

Supported by the DAAD with funds from the Federal Foreign Office (FFO)

All welcome! Please send an email to Janine Maegraith (cjm80@cam.ac.uk) if you would like to attend. <https://camhabsburgstudies.wordpress.com/>