

Brazilian Filmmaker Kleber Mendonça Filho At the University of Cambridge

The Department of Spanish and Portuguese, with support from the Centre of Latin American Studies, is delighted to host Brazilian Filmmaker Kleber Mendonça Filho for the following series of events from 21- 25 November, 2017:

Screenings:

All screenings will be at the Cambridge Arts Picturehouse. Each screening will be followed by a Q&A with Kleber Mendonça Filho.

Tickets can be purchased at Arts Picturehouse Cambridge

TUE 21 NOVEMBER, 6:30PM – NEIGHBOURING SOUNDS, 2012, 131mins

THU 23 NOVEMBER, 6:30PM - AQUARIUS, 2016, 140 mins, Winner Independent Spirit Award for Best International Film and César Award for Best Foreign Film.

Noman MacColl Symposium:

“Building Films: Conversations with Kleber Mendonça Filho”

Saturday, 25 November, 2pm-7pm, Alison Richard Building, 7 West Road, Cambridge CB3 9DT

Speakers include: Maite Conde (Cambridge) Stephanie Dennison (Leeds), Tiago de Luca (Warwick), Lúcia Nagib (Reading), and Kleber Mendonça Filho

The symposium is free and open to the public but please register via the website:

<http://www.latin-american.cam.ac.uk/latest-news-and-events/critically-acclaimed-brazilian-filmmaker-comes-cambridge>

Department of Spanish and Portuguese

Centre of Latin American Studies